

I like guys who do their work without being stuffy about it.

Richard Cannon-1962

*I like guys who do their work without being stuffy about it.
Richard Cannon*

We Worked . . .

Our first day of Latin class, Mr. Cannon comes in and writes on the board "WHY" —He tells us always ask why? His reward:

Well Mr. Cannon always parked his convertible (top often down) under the second floor fire escape—where some STA gentlemen (and we use the term loosely) would use the car as a spittoon!

When I asked Why?—they replied WHY NOT!

Mr. Richard Cannon, another new faculty member, is explaining an ancient Roman myth to Kenny Stearns.

Latin III with the Bad Seven--1964